Homework#2
First, put into real numbers to calculate the de Broglie wavelength versus particle energy, for photons, neutrons, and electrons. (Please refer to Fig. 1 in chapter 2.) Then, find out specifically the energy of electrons needed to do diffraction experiments on typical semiconductors.